Act of Spiritual Communion – when you are celebrating Mass online, please offer this prayer with the Celebrant: 'My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.'

Hands – Face – Space – Fresh Air

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for July: We pray that, in social, economic and political situations of conflict, we may be courageous and passionate architects of dialogue and friendship.

Cycle of Prayer: During the summer of Ordinary Time, we pray for: a deeper understanding between Christians and Jews; those who suffer persecution, oppression & the denial of human rights; Europe; human life; and seafarers. We also pray for Fr Colum, the sick & housebound of our parish, the mission of St Mary's & St Joseph's schools, and all whose anniversaries occur at this time.

CARE: There will be a second collection this weekend to support CARE's support of emergency food provision for the vulnerable and needy within our community. CARE has moved away from providing bags of food to people to issuing food vouchers, which means that individuals have to physically make the effort to shop for themselves and choose the food they will eat; this been well received and the people themselves have told us that they prefer this as they feel this is a more dignified method that restores some of their self-worth. Please be generous.

Celebrating Mass: Please visit massbooking.uk as early in the week as possible to book your place for Sunday Mass, contact the parish if you need assistance and remember to cancel your booking if you cannot come so that your seat can be reallocated. Admission to weekday Mass, other liturgical celebrations and private individual prayer is on a first come, first-served basis other than for funerals at which the church's maximum number applies and admission is by prior arrangement. Toilet facilities are available for emergency use. All liturgies in St Mary on the Sea Church are livestreamed. More information is available in each church, online and from the parish office.

Congratulations to Yasmin Onyango, Alice Osicka, Melissa-Stefania Ambarus, Zofia Sierotnik-Warchol, Isabell Pearce and Oscar Maliszewski, baptised recently, and Adrienne Jones who has begun work as Programme Leader for the Nottingham Catholic Diocesan Youth Service.

First Holy Communion: Application forms for First Holy Communion in 2022 are available from the porch of each of our churches; parents of children who will be in Key Stage 2 or above in school year 2021-2022 who would like their children to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and the Blessed Eucharist next year should complete an application form and hand it directly to Fr Andrew at the end of Mass by Sunday 12th September 2021. Parents whose children were on the programme in 2020-2021 and who have not completed their preparation will also need to complete the application form as there is no automatic re-registration.

Sea Sunday – 11th July 2021: Next Sunday is Sea Sunday, when we will pray in a special way for all those who live and work at sea. There will be an appeal at each Mass next weekend for Stella Maris, the Church's official maritime agency; please take an envelope as you leave Mass this morning and return it next weekend, when we will have a second collection to help Stella Maris to be the 'star of the sea', providing practical and spiritual support for seafarers throughout the world, including here in our parish. Please visit youtu.be/x1IFWAY26cA to watch a video about Stella Maris and its work, and to make an online donation please visit stellamaris.org.uk/what-we-do. Please pray for port chaplains and volunteers, including Steve, Bryony and all who support Stella Maris' work in Grimsby and Immingham, and seafarers throughout the world to whom we owe so much.

A Prayer by Fr Henri Nouwen (1932-1996): Lord, who else or what else can I desire but you? You are my Lord, Lord of my heart, mind, and soul. You know me through and through. In and through you everything that is finds its origin and goal. You embrace all that exists and care for it with divine love and compassion. Why, then, do I keep expecting happiness and satisfaction outside of you? Why do I keep relating to you as one of my many relationships, instead of my only relationship, in which all other ones are grounded? Why do I keep looking for popularity, respect from others, success, acclaim, and sensual pleasures? Why, Lord, is it so hard for me to make you the only one? Why do I keep hesitating to surrender myself totally to you?

Help me, O Lord, to let my old self die, to let me die to the thousand big and small ways in which I am still building up my false self and trying to cling to my false desires. Let me be reborn in you and see through you the world in the right way, so that all my actions, words, and thoughts can become a hymn of praise to you. I need your loving grace to travel on this hard road that leads to the death of my old self to a new life in and for you. I know and trust that this is the road to freedom. Lord, dispel my mistrust and help me become a trusting friend. Amen.
